

Fellow Professionals,

It goes without saying that the forthcoming Lok Sabha elections are of extreme importance, now more so than ever before!

As professionals, society at large has always considered us as the spearheads for integrity, efficiency and honesty. Like you, we too wish to ensure our:

- a. Domestic Security,
- b. Economic Progress and
- c. Communal Harmony.

We must therefore exercise our national franchise to vote and thereby afford ourselves the pen to justifiable expectations. After a comprehensive analysis, it is blatantly evident that only one man stands leaps ahead of the other candidates – Milind Deora. He is Able, Accessible and Accountable!

Milind Deora's "AAA" personality is evidenced by the following:-

- 1) Milind Deora's attendance rate in Parliament stands at a tall 75% – well above the National and State averages (73% and 64%, respectively).
- 2) During his tenure as Member of Parliament he has asked 479 questions – once again, well above the National and State averages (135 and 221, respectively).
- 3) India Today magazine has bestowed Milind Deora with the distinction of being India's Best Member of Parliament (from the pool of all 545 Members of Parliament). Further, Outlook magazine has reiterated the fact that Milind Deora has the distinction of being one of India's top performing Members of Parliament.
- 4) We live in troubled times marked by an unprecedented economic downturn. Given the current economic scenario, an unstable multi-party coalition government (marred by a limited national perspective) will seriously hamper India's growth rate and foreign policy (which is still better off vis-à-vis the rest of the world – this has been possible only because of the present Government's strong grass root economic policies).

Furthermore, his main adversaries have dubious personal histories and abysmal track records. A reality check as far as the independent candidates are concerned – supporting independent candidates (who would need to rely on coalitions to implement any of their proposed plans) would in effect plunge India into an economic black-hole.

- 5) To quantify Milind Deora's array of achievements in qualitative terms is a daunting task for even a seasoned analyst. We, therefore urge you to look at Milind's website (www.milinddeora.com) and familiarise yourself with the details of Milind Deora's first Lok Sabha term.

In the resounding words of Edmund Burke: "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing". As professional citizens, we support dynamism, constructive zeal and steadfast fortitude – proven character traits of only one man – Milind Deora. We implore you to do the same and support him by casting your vote on 30th April 2009!

Warm regards,

Deepak Parekh
